You can be in Alaska right now —by telephone

Do you have friends, business contacts or members of the family in Alaska?

You can talk to them as easily as you make a call in this country—right from the telephone in your home or office.

Telephoning is the personal, satisfying way to keep in touch, renew old friendships or iron out business matters that might take days or weeks to settle any other way.

It's easy to do—just tell the operator where you want to call.

It's economical to call Alaska
