Fifty-nine Years of Telephone Service

FATHER, TWO SONS AND DAUGHTER-IN-LAW ALL WORK FOR THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

TELEPHONE MAN OF 1970. Clarence C. O'Sullivan's son, Mike, likes to pretend he's a "telephone man." And he will be when he grows up, if he follows in his family's footsteps.

When Clarence M. O'Sullivan started to work for the telephone company, back in 1919, he started a family tradition. Since then two sons and a daughter-in-law have also decided on telephone careers. They have a total of fifty-nine years' service.

A recent U. S. Government survey gives some interesting figures on the length of time men and women have served with their present employers.

By comparison, the length of service for women in the Bell System is twice the average for women in other industries. For telephone men it is nearly three times the average for other industries.

This longer length of service, which indicates job satisfaction, also has a value to the telephone user. It helps us give better service to everyone.
